Applicants Statement:

I have read, understood, and commit to the above guidelines. I also understand that along with my above commitments, I am a representative of Christ in my home, my school, my church, my youth group, and in this world; and as such, I must strive to make my character and behavior beyond reproach with the help of God. I understand that blatant disregard to follow these commitments and guidelines that I've made may result in removal from the mission team.
